Independent Residences in Makrylia, Lassithi, Crete

In a southeastern Crete olive grove of unique beauty just a few, independently arranged, luxurious, seasonal residences are being built for you.

The exceptional Mediterranean climate of Crete, the extended summertime and the reputed nearby beaches make the choice of Makrylia the ideal place for a year-round vacation.

The picturesque village of Makrylia is located in the middle of the narrower band of Cretan ground, thus having advantageous access to both Libyan Sea (the town of Ierapetra is just 5,5Km or a 10 minutes drive away) and the Aegean Sea (13 km or a 15 minutes drive). Makrylia is easily accessible via both Heraklion International and Sitia (soon to be International) Airports (83Km and 64Km drive respectively with frequent public transport service). Uniquely beautiful landscape and surroundings offer an exceptional setting to combine recreation with relaxation and the opportunity to invest in a quality residence in Crete, Greece. You can select the exact size, layout and optional equipment of your home from a big range of flexible constructive choices.

Each residence is in an independent plot with a courtyard and optional parking space. Unlimited view to the peaceful surrounding scenery including the Libyan Sea, incredibly illuminated by the Greek sun during the day and by the clear sky at night is an integral part of the package.

Resorts like Kalo Chorio (Good Village), Agia Fotia (Saint Fire), Galini (Serenity), Makrygyalos (Long Beach), Elounta Beach and more offer endless exploration choices of Cretan beauty within a short distance from Makrylia.

Become a part of the hospitable Greek society and lifestyle, taste the incomparable, healthy Cretan and Mediterranean cuisine and enjoy the cretan beaches and sea. Make a double profit from a sound real estate investment and a greatly improved quality of life. Utilize the ease of transport and the common currency within the European Union and leave home with no worries or extra preparation; no passport or money exchange required!
